USS Constitution Museum

Yards away from "Old Ironsides," the Museum is a "must see" for everyone visiting Boston, where interactive galleries take adults, families & children of all ages on a 200-year voyage. Learn how a wooden hull helped earn the nickname Old Ironsides. Discover how "Old Ironsides" has remained undefeated since being launched in 1797. Find out how school children contributed pennies to help save "Old Ironsides." See how sailors ate a diet of hardtack and grog, & climbed masts 200 feet in the air.

Self-Guided Tour of the USS Constitution

USS Constitution, the world's oldest commissioned warship afloat and America's Ship Of State, promotes the United States Navy and America's naval heritage through educational outreach, public access and historic demonstrations both in port and underway in Boston Harbor. Visitors to 'Old Ironsides' are able to ask questions and speak with active duty U.S. Navy Sailors assigned as members of USS Constitution's crew, who are stationed at the ship as interpretative historians to help bring Constitution's storied past to life!
