The Flower Show is held at the Pennsylvania Convention Center on Arch St between 11th & 12th Streets.

Flower Show Theme: Experience one of the most diverse displays of plants under one roof. America’s premier flower show presents: Wonders of Water.

America’s leading floral and garden designers will create tropical rainforests, temperate forests, native woodlands and arid landscapes, showcasing the astounding horticulture that thrives in each environment. Guests will enter under a canopy of exotic flowers, and marvel at the multi-level bamboo waterfall. An ever-shifting rain curtain will guide visitors over a “suspended” rope bridge, and through a brilliant green rainforest.

Where to Eat: Food can be purchased at the Flower Show throughout the Pennsylvania Convention Center. There are Snack Bars at the rear of the main exhibit hall, and full dining services located on Level 3 above the exhibition halls in the Overlook Café. You will also find numerous restaurants in the area immediately surrounding the Convention Center, including Reading Terminal Market and in nearby Chinatown.

Free Re-entry: Visitors can re-enter the show on the same day for free. Need to have hand stamped.

Handicap Accessibility: The Pennsylvania Convention Center is a handicap accessible building. Elevators are available to guests who require them. Wheelchairs are available for rent on a first-come, first-served basis.

Visitor Suggestions:

- Dress for the occasion - There’s a lot to see, so comfortable shoes are a must. Dress in layers as it can get chilly on the Show floor.
- Take notes - Jot down the name of plants you like or the contact information of exhibitors, or snap a photo of your favorite exhibits.
- Make a shopping list - The Flower Show is a shopper’s paradise. Think ahead to spring and what you might want for the months ahead.
