The Vineyard at Grandview is a family owned vineyard located amid the rolling hills of northwest Lancaster County. The Kennel family has been growing premium vinifera grapes – Cabernet Sauvignon, Merlot, Chardonnay and more, since 2009. It all started approximately eight years ago when Larry Kennel began to make wine on a small scale, as a hobby. He spent many hours harvesting roadside wine berries and elderberries to make his specialty, completely dry fruit wines. He began to get positive feedback from friends and family who had the opportunity to taste his wines. Larry read textbooks and he has attended many conferences and seminars to further his knowledge base. After extensive research, he asked his family if they would join him in the wine industry. And, the rest, as they say, is history!

Naylor’s Winery started as a wine making hobby of Mr. Naylor in the late 60’s with dandelion wine being the first wine he ever made. His interest in winemaking progressed to the point that he planted a vineyard in his backyard at his home in York. He grew Concord, Niagara and Catawba grapes, the beginnings of what would become his Pennsylvania vineyard. In 1972 he entered an amateur wine competition at the York Fair and won best in show three years in a row. These honors and the continued development of his vineyard caused him to realize that he could turn his passion into a successful business. In 1977 Mr. Naylor produced the first 1600 gallons of wine in the original winery – a potato cellar underneath the chicken house that still stands on the property today.

You will have a light luncheon buffet at Naylor’s Winery including tossed salad with dressing options, a variety of sandwiches on assorted breads with assorted meats and cheeses plus assorted pastry dessert, lemonade and water.

Four Springs Winery invites you to come and experience the charm and warmth of the tasting room in Seven Valleys, Pennsylvania. Whether you are the casual wine drinker or serious enthusiast, the knowledgeable and friendly staff will assist you in finding the right wine to suit your palette. Each wine is handcrafted from grapes grown on the family-owned land in Southern York County. They also offer a complimenting full line of gourmet food products, recipes and gifts from Robert Rothschild Farm.
