Smithsonian Institute is on the National Mall. Admission to the buildings is free. All of the buildings have restrooms and wheelchair access and food services in some of the buildings. Buildings include National Museum of the American Indian, The Castle or Smithsonian Institution Building, Arthur M Sackler Gallery, Freer Gallery of Art, National Portrait Gallery, Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden, National Air and Space Museum, National Gallery of Art, National Museum of American History & National Museum of Natural History.

The National Mall - Visiting “the Mall” is a must-do for any first-time visitor. Encompassing a two-mile swath of land from the Capitol Building to the Lincoln Memorial, this is the Washington you see in movies and in history books. In addition to perfect photo-ops for both the Washington Monument and Capitol building, you’ll also find several of the Smithsonian museums (including the Smithsonian Castle, the National Archives, National Gallery of Art and the U.S. Botanic Gardens).
